Russ and Dee have been writing together for four years. In the last four years they have written three books, coached individuals on Internet dating and writing. They have also led discussion groups on Internet dating as well as on writing and publishing journals and books.

Prior to their meeting, Russ had a second career as a public speaker.

Presentation Topics

Should I use a dating site?

The new venue of dating, is it safe? Should I use it?

Dating has changed over the years thanks to technology. Meeting via the Internet once unusual is now common. The real question is, should I use it? Is it right for me? Is it safe? In this program Russ and Dee will delve into these questions using their own and other's experiences as examples.

The Second Time Around-A Guide Through The Maze Of Internet Dating

Learn The Survival Skills For Internet Dating

Russ and Dee met on the Internet after losing their spouses. Neither had dated in a long time, so their journey was not without stumbles and falls.

Learn from their experiences and others how to navigate your way through the maze of internet dating. They start with assessing your readiness to date and walk you through processes all the way to your date.

Yes You Can Write A Book

How to Use Web Tools to write, Publish, and Tell Your Story

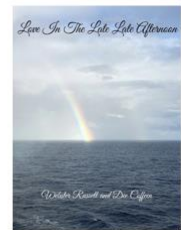

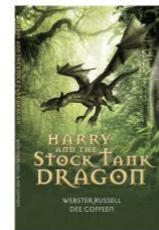

Gone are the days when you have to rely only on traditional publishing companies to get a book published. Russ and Dee have written and published together. In this program they will talk about what it takes to author a book, the programs available to help you as you write, and the self publishing opportunities available.

What Is It Like To Cruise Around The World?

Russ and Dee have cruised around the world twice gathering pictures, stories, experiencing new cultures, and just having fun.

This program will let you vicariously see the world with them through their pictures and stories. They are not travel agents and they are not selling anything. They are just two people sharing their joy of travel.
